

WELCOME TO SOIN

Feeling healthy is not a luxury - it's an absolute necessity.

Life offers few experiences that equal the fulfillment of seeing a new mother take her new healthy baby home, seeing a friend emerge victorious from a bout with cancer, or knowing that your loved one's life was saved after an accident. Soin Medical Center is proud to be a part of the quality care involved in those experiences.

Indu and Raj Soin's VISION AND GENEROSITY will result in saving lives and restoring health for thousands of their neighbors in the Beavercreek area.

I'm proud to be part of the team that embraces the patient from the minute they hit the door.

State-of-the-Art Technology - GetWellNetwork

Find the latest technology in medical care in your own backyard.

The know-how to successfully achieve good health is available to everyone.

GetWellNetwork empowers patients to take a more active role in the care process by learning more about their condition, communicating with caregivers, preparing for discharge, and caring for themselves at home. Each patient is prompted with patient-specific education and care tasks by utilizing the television in each private patient room.

An important part of getting well is being able to take your mind off things for a while.

Watch On-demand Movies and Television

Patients have access to cable/satellite television and an assortment of Hollywood movies they can watch at anytime.

Surf the Web, Check Email, and Send Messages

GetWellNetwork offers access to email, instant messaging and a full Internet browser that includes plug-ins for web technologies like Flash and streaming video. Patients are able to stay connected with friends and family through the Internet.

Play Games and Music

Patients can access music and Internet radio stations tailored to their musical tastes or spend time playing an assortment of video games. Patients can also connect their favorite gaming console like their Xbox, Wii or PlayStation.
